Thanks, Heather. Yes, please emphasize the Enforcement category with folks. I'd rather they err in putting something in that category that doesn't belong versus having an enforcement story in the wrong category.

Hi Roxanne,

Thanks for the feedback.

We will also move the Terminix story to the Enforcement section online, and I will reiterate that guidance with the team.

Please let me know if there's anything else we can do for you.

Thanks!
Heather

Officials Meet To Discuss Inventory Of Inactive Mines In Colorado.

The Denver Post (3/30, Finley) reports officials have “ramped up efforts” to build an inventory of inactive mines that drain into Colorado waterways and prioritize them for cleanup. Agencies represented at a Wednesday meeting to discuss the inventory include: CDPHE, Colorado Geological Survey, Colorado Department of Natural Resources, US Forest Service, Bureau of Land Management, and Environmental Protection Agency. The Denver Post reports “CDPHE and the CGS are leading a $300,000 inventory initiative.”
